Good morning, IS 201! My name is Hana from class 831, and I'm here with you on this Talk-A-Lot Tuesday on behalf of the SEAL Team, the Social Awareness Leadership Team here at IS 201!

Today is Navy Day! Navy Day is a time to recognize the United States Navy and the people who have served and continue to serve in it. The Navy has played an important role in U.S. history for more than two centuries, protecting the country's interests at sea and around the world. It's also a chance to learn about the many different jobs and responsibilities that are part of the Navy, from sailors and officers to engineers, medical professionals, pilots, and many others. Today gives us an opportunity to recognize their dedication and the work they do.

As the SEAL Team, we also want to use today as a reminder of the importance of teamwork, leadership, and service. Being part of a team means supporting one another, communicating, and doing your part to help everyone succeed. We can practice those same values right here at IS 201 by helping our classmates, showing respect, and looking out for our school community.

So today, let's take a moment to recognize those who serve and remember that even small acts of teamwork and kindness can make a difference.

The affirmation of the day is, "I am not afraid to grow."

Thank you for listening and have a Teamwork Tuesday 😊
