Good morning I.S.201, this is Aila from class 813 here with you this Thoughtful Thursday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today is National American Football Day! This day celebrates the excitement, teamwork, and sportsmanship that make football such a great sport. Whether you're cheering for your favorite team, playing football with friends, or just enjoying the game, today is a great day to show your football spirit!

Remember, football isn't just about winning. It's about working together, supporting your teammates, and never giving up.

The affirmation of the day is, "I listen when others are speaking."

Thanks for listening and have a Teamwork Thursday 😊
